What Lonely Planet has said:

"...travellers congregate here for that special something that few hostels have - an attitude, a young vibe, a chilled ambience." (lonelyplanet.com)

"It's just not possible in Barcelona to walk out your front door and find yourself closer to the beach... this hostel is highly recommended and an interesting alternative to the clichéd La Rambla experience" (lonelyplanet.com)

"...Gothic Point is a bustling, sprawling hostel that's always a hive of activity. From the dreadlocked and friendly staff to the cheery colours of the reception area, this place is best known for endless array of activities within Barcelona and further afield" (lonelyplanet.com)

"The staff here are as traveller-savvy as you'll find and the list of organised activities is endless, from nights out in Barcelona and backpacker-friendly city tours to longer excursions elsewhere in Spain" (lonelyplanet.com)
