Hostel in Lisbon - Equity Point Lisboa Hostel

The perfect location

Equity Point's new hostel in Lisbon has the best possible location: right in the heart of the city, at the crossroads of Chiado, Bairro Alto and Restauradores neighborhoods. There is an important transit hub very nearby, with an underground station, the famous "Subida de Gloria" streetcar, and convenient airport buses. The hostel is just a three minute walk from the 'Mirador de San Pedro de Alcantara' where you can enjoy some of the best views of the city.

The building history

The building which hosts Equity Point Lisboa was built around 1800 to be the palace of a wealthy Lisboan family. The building has been completely refurbished but still retains its incredible fireplaces, ornate three meter high ceilings and its unique original wooden floor. The facade has been restored to its original color, which gives the hostel a unique look and makes it easily identifiable from virtually anywhere in the city.

Discover the hostel

Equity Point Lisbon is our company's eighth hostel. It has 104 beds distributed in rooms from 2 to 10 beds. All rooms face the exterior and many have a balcony. You will not forget this
